A Trentham Book from UCL IOE Press
31 March 2016, ISBN 978-1-85856-678-8

‘The NUT is delighted to recommend this book to teachers ... I absolutely commend this book to you. I hope you will read and enjoy it and find time to discuss it with friends and colleagues. I believe that you will be inspired to continue to campaign for education as a human and civil right and a public good. This is at the heart of what the National Union of Teachers believes. Our children and our teachers deserve no less.’ – From the Foreword by Christine Blower, General Secretary, National Union of Teachers
